Panama City, Fla. — The Florida Department of Health in Bay is celebrating National Breastfeeding Month this August. This year's theme—Breastfeeding: Foundation of Life! The theme focuses on breastfeeding as the foundation of lifelong good health for babies and mothers.

“We are glad to see so many new organizations be recognized for their efforts to help breastfeeding moms,” said Douglas Kent, MPH, DOH-Bay Administrator. “Having supportive environments when mothers return to work is a key for their success in continuing to breastfeed and it’s a win-win for the employer and employee.”

DOH-Bay is working to promote breastfeeding as a vital health activity, and encourages breastfeeding-friendly hospitals, child care facilities, work places and communities. How to feed a new baby is one of the first important decisions a family must make, and most women who choose to breastfeed have a specific goal in mind.

Research shows:

- Breastfed infants have a reduced risk of infections, asthma, obesity and SIDS compared with formula-fed infants;
- Mothers who breastfeed have a reduced risk of breast cancer, ovarian cancer and postpartum depression compared to mothers who don't breastfeed; and
- It's estimated that $13 billion would be saved per year if 90 percent of U.S. infants were breastfed exclusively for six months.

To reach the goal of exclusive breastfeeding for at least six months mothers need supportive work policies, infant and child-care at or near the workplace, and private facilities for expressing and storing breastmilk. It takes time and practice to learn how to breastfeed, both for mother and baby, and to establish a good milk supply. To that end, Bay County is proud to be the home of eight Breastfeeding Friendly Employers and three Breastfeeding Friendly childcare providers. This distinction is earned through the Florida Breastfeeding Coalition.
